

BY MR. PALZER:

Q What is your address? A Well, I am Lavallette in the Summer and Philadelphia in the Winter.

Q What is your Philadelphia address? A 3837 Baring Street.

Q Mr. Piard, how long have you been residing in Lavallette?

A Twenty years, about twenty years, in the Summer-time.

Q How long have you known Mr. Henry Stevens?

A Why, about ten years.

Q Are you a fisherman yourself? A Well, I am a sportsman, you might call me. I am a gunner and I fish for sport.

Q During 1922 were you summering at Lavallette? A Yes.

Q Are you able to recall in any ^{way} what happened on September 14, 1922? A Yes.

Q Will you tell me just how you happen to recall that?

A Well, I will get the day before that, on a Wednesday.

Q Which was the 13th? A We packed our goods at twelve o'clock.

Q Of the morning?

A My wife and I, and went to our apartment in Philadelphia. And I loaded the things in the machine and carried them downstairs, and then I carried them to my apartment in Philadelphia from the car up to--we were living on the
